Concord Presbytery Surges Ahead To Lead All

MANY CHURCHES HAVE EQUALLED OR EXCEEDED SUMS GIVEN LAST YEAR

215 Have Contributed More In Nine Months Than In All 12 Months of 1933-34

FIVE EQUAL AMOUNTS

Most All Of Churches Expected To Exceed Before Books Close

When the third quarter of the 1934-1935 fiscal year closed on December 31, 1934, 215 churches in the Synod of North Carolina had exceeded the total sum sent the Orphanage for the 12 months of 1933-1934, and five other churches had sent identical amounts as those of 1933-1934. This gives a total of 220 churches which have either equalled or exceeded their 1933-1934 aggregates.

A great many of these churches had the honor of being recorded on a similar list after December 31, 1933, which is especially significant. It means that for two consecutive years they have shown increases over the previous two year periods, and have accomplished this in nine months' time. In 1933-1934, 343 churches gave more than in 1932-1933 when finis was written across the records for the year, and this number will probably be exceeded for the year 1934-1935 over 1933-1934.

The distribution of these churches which have already "gone over" is Albemarle Presbytery 17, Concord 27, Fayetteville 38, Granville 20, Kings Mountain 9, Mecklenburg 37, Orange 28, Wilmington 23, and Winston-Salem 16.

Churches giving equal amounts so far are Bridgewater in Concord Presbytery, Four Oaks in Fayetteville, Fairview in Granville, Brown Marsh in Wilmington and Danbury in Winston-Salem.

Churches ahead of last year follow:

Albemarle Presbytery—Ahoskie, Ballard's Mission, Bethlehem, Carraway's Mission, Edenton, Falkland, Farmville, Fountain, Goldsboro, Greenville, Henderlite Memorial, LaGrange, Pinetops, Snow Hill, Suggs' Cross Roads, Washington, William and Mary Hart.

Concord—Bayless Memorial, Beattie Memorial, Bethany, Bethpage, Clearfield, Concord First, Elmwood, Fifth Creek, Glen Alpine, Hickory, Little Joe's, Marion, Mooresville First, Morganton, McDowell, McKinnon, New Salem, Old Fort, Park Place, Patterson, Poplar Tent, Prospect, Shiloh, Statesville First, Stony Point, Taylorsville, Waldensian.

Fayettevil'e—Antioch, Barbecue, Berea, Bethesda, Buie's Creek, Cameron Hill, Cape Fear, Carthage, Comfort, Culdee, Dundarrach, Eagle Springs, Elrod, Ephesus, Erwin, Fairmont, Flat Branch, Galatia, Gibson, Hebron, Lakeview, Laurinburg, Lumberton, Manly, Maxton, Midway, Mile Branch, McMillan, McPherson, Mt. Carmel, Mt. Pisgah, Mt. Tabor, Philippi, Philadelphus, Raeford, Raven Rock, Rowland, Westminster.

Granville—Buffalo Vanguard, Center Ridge, Ernest Myatt, Geneva, Gruver Memorial, Henderson, Littleton, North Vanguard, Nut Bush, Oak Hill, Progressive, Roanoke Rapids, Selma, Southard's Chapel, St. Andrews, Trinity Avenue, Vanguard Mission, Varina, Warrenton, White Oak.

Kings Mountain—Armstrong Memorial, Bessemer City, Bostic, Ellenboro, Forest City, Hebron, Lowell, Machpelah, Saluda.

Mecklenburg—Altan, Amity, Bethany, Bethel, Beulah, Biscoe, Caldwell Memorial, Camp Green, Candor, Central Steel Creek, Liles-

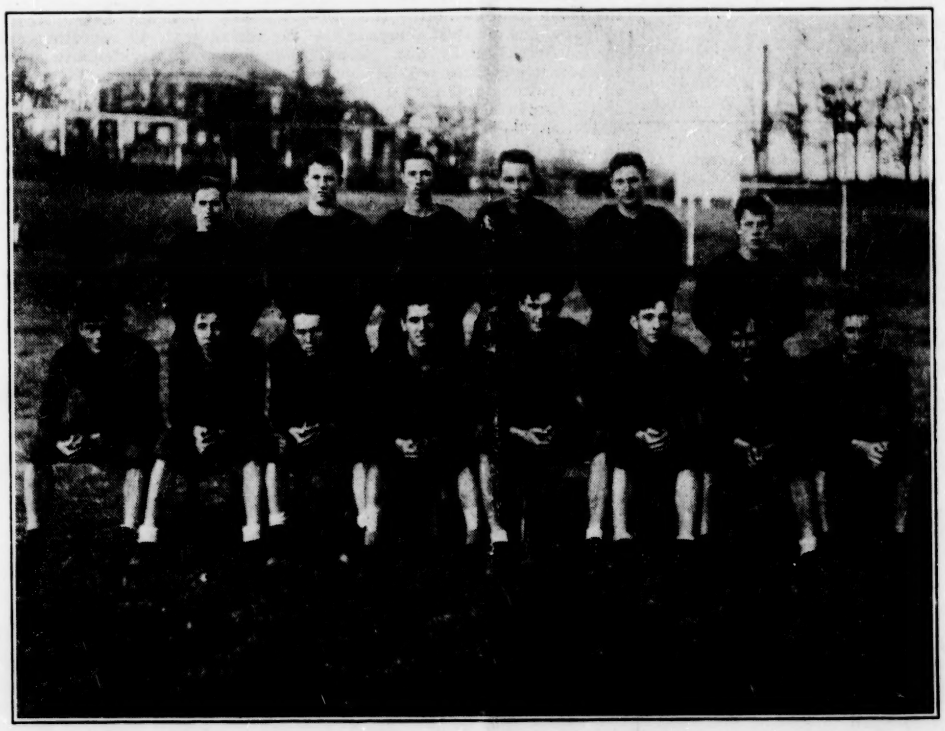
Letter Men For 1934 Football Season



We hope you will take a little time to look at the above picture. It is a photo of the boys who won their letters in football at Barium this year. Six of these boys are Seniors. They have played their last football for Barium. You will be hearing from the other eight next year, and what they do should make interesting reading. The 125-pound team are rarin' to take the place of the six letter men who graduate.

We have just finished weighing up all of the children at Barium Springs. One member of this last year's 125-pound squad gained 28 pounds. Another one gained 26 pounds. Two others gained over 25 pounds. You can see from this where our varsity material comes from. It is a good deal less than a 25-pound gap between the big midgets and the varsity. These boys completed a very successful season this year, losing three games, tieing three games and winning five.

SITTING: Left to Right, Flowers, halfback; Barnhill, right tackle; Potter, right end; R. Spencer, left guard; Freeman, right tackle; Parrish, left end; D. Spencer, quarterback; Clark, right guard.

Income Distribution

For the first time this fiscal year, the church budget giving is leading the Synod of North Carolina, the lead having been lost by the Sunday Schools in December because of an unusual amount of regular giving through the church budgets last month. The Sunday Schools had maintained this supremacy unquestioned for the preceding eight months. Readers are asked to keep in mind that this does not include what was done at Thanksgiving time.

Even at the above feat, the church budget giving is only a little more than $1,600.00 ahead of the Sunday Schools, and perhaps the latter will overcome this advantage in the last quarter of the present 1934-1935 period. The regular income is distributed between the church budgets with $11,917.70; Sunday Schools, $10,223.26; Auxiliaries, $5,311.70, and Young People's organizations, $51.39.

The amounts from the church budgets and Sunday Schools were the greatest of any month so far, while the Auxiliaries barely missed giving their largest sum. The churches quadrupled their November total, and the Sunday Schools sent an amount almost twice as large during December as in November.

The distribution of the regular receipts is as follows:

April	$ 185.76	$ 621.82	$201.67
May	535.10	1,065.94	430.09
June	781.25	950.05	580.68
July	838.30	1,275.36	622.92
August	1,471.09	876.19	373.50
Sept.	825.22	1,436.55	667.12
October	1,366.02	1,310.42	843.54
November	996.56	964.08	721.45
Dec.	4,918.40	1,722.85	870.73

ALL THREE

Six additional churches were last month added to the 61 previously reported as helping the Orphanage regularly through the channels of the church budget, Sunday School Offering and Auxiliary appropriation. This, of course, deals with that which is given regularly and does not include the Thanksgiving Offering. If those reporting through all three at Thanksgiving were added, this roster would be considerably longer. However, this is to emphasize the great necessity of regular, systematic giving to the exclusion of the Thanksgiving response.

Those churches gaining this distinction in December were Pinetops in Albemarle Presbytery, Concord First in Concord, Lincolnton in Kings Mountain, Ramah in Meck'enburg, and Burlington First and Broadway in Orange Presbytery.

Mecklenburg maintains the lead with 14 churches in this group. Concord has 11 and Albemarle is credited with nine. Eight are in Orange, seven in Fayetteville, Winston-Salem and Wilmington have five each, and Granville and Kings Mountain have four apiece.

Churches in this distinctive group follow:

Albemarle Presbytery—Ahoskie, Edenton, Goldsboro, Greenville, New Bern, Pinetops, Rocky Mount First, Washington, Wilson.

Concord—Bethpage, Concord First, Davidson, Marion, Mooresville First, Prospect, Salisbury First, Salisbury Second, Statesville First, Third Creek, Thyatira.

Fayetteville—Bethesda, Laurinburg, Lumber Bridge, McPherson,

What a great response came to Barium from the Sunday Schools in December! It was almost twice the sum sent in November and almost equalled that best mark in the closing month of the 1933-1934 year. A total of $1,722 85 reached the Orphanage from the Sunday Schools last month, and this does not include any of the Thanksgiving Offering from them. This deals only and solely with regular gifts to $10,223.26 for the first nine months of 1934-1935, which is $1,345.36 more than they sent for the corresponding period of 1933-1934.

This increase is attributed to the fact that many more Sunday Schools are now giving regularly than were contributing an offering-per-month a year ago, and this marginal difference should readily rise as contributions are received for the final quarter. It was estimated some time ago that the increase would be in the neighborhood of $3,000.00 for the year. It will be interesting to see how far wrong the authorities were in making this estimate.

Winston-Salem Leads

Winston-Salem First Sunday School in December took the lead in giving for the nine months. Concord First Sunday School had been "king" since the fiscal period started last April, but reports from Winston-Salem sent that Sunday School surging ahead with a total of $543.86, as compared with Concord First's $495.89. This should be an interesting race for supremacy in the final quarter. Winston-Salem had the honor at the close of 1933-1934.

In addition to these two Sunday

Four Presbyteries Have Passed Their '33 Thanksgiving Offerings

Winston-Salem Presbytery has held the lead of the North Carolina Synod for so long and so consistently that this had become an accepted fact and the news value of this feat was lost. But, when another Presbytery comes forward to displace Winston-Salem Presbytery from its pinnacle and to assume the leadership, that is news. And so Concord Presbytery is being featured in this issue of The Messenger for that Presbytery is leading the Synod of North Carolina by a substantial margin, and is still going strong!

It is the first time in a number of years that two Presbyteries of the Synod have exceeded the minimum average of ten cents per member per month. After the Thanksgiving Offering annually arrives, Winston-Salem invariably ranks as one which has exceeded the amount asked for by the Orphanage, but today Concord and Winston-Salem are both ahead, and Albemarle Presbytery isn't far behind. Had three Presbyteries accomplished this, it would have been like a return to the good old times.

Over $12,000.00 came through Concord Presbytery last month to make it possible for them to be 54¾ cents ahead of the ninety cents which had been asked for the first nine months of the fiscal year, and with the way that Presbytery has been giving it will just about maintain this advantage for the remainder of the year. That Presbytery's Thanksgiving Offering is so far ahead of all others that none of the totals of the other Presbyteries are comparable to it.

On December 31st, Concord Presbytery had sent $8,903.13 to Barium as its Thanksgiving Offering, while the nearest amount to that was $6,000.69 from Mecklenburg Presbytery. Concord has exceeded its 1933 Offering by $3,332.61, while Orange Presbytery was closest to that with her excess of $1,126.70.

Comparing this with the standing of the Presbyteries of a year ago, it is observed that five Presbyteries are ahead of their per capita giving, and four are behind.

Concord leads the way, for that Presbytery is 62¾ cents ahead of the report on December 31, 1933.

Orange is 18½ cents ahead.

Fayetteville is 10½ cents ahead.

Wilmington is 5¼ cents ahead.

Albemarle is 2¾ cents ahead.

On the other hand, Winston-Salem Presbytery is 3¾ cents behind its record of exactly a year ago.

Granville Presbytery is 6¼ cents behind.

Kings Mountain is 7¾ cents behind.

Mecklenburg is 8¾ cents behind.

Above, it was stated that Concord and Orange Presbyteries had exceeded their 1933 Thanksgiving Offerings. Two other Presbyteries have done likewise. They are Fayetteville Presbytery, which is $845.07 ahead and Albemarle Presby-

"I give and bequeath to the REGENTS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA, Incorporated Under the laws of the State of North Carolina, (HERE NAME THE BEQUEST.)

ARCHIBALD JOHNSON

(By Jos. B. Johnston)

Archibald Johnson is dead, and every daily in North Carolina is carrying editorials on this man. A stranger might ask why? He never acquired great wealth; he never held high political honors; he never did anything heroic, (as that word is commonly interpreted); and it was only in his death that he made the front page of the daily papers. Who was this man Johnson, anyway? Well, he no doubt had as much influence on the thinking of the people of North Carolina as any man who ever lived in the State. He no doubt did more for orphan children in North Carolina than any man that ever lived in North Carolina. He was the Editor of Charity and Children, the newspaper published each week at the Mills Home at Thomasville. It was a church paper, as well as an Orphanage paper. It was unique, in that it more than paid its own way. It was unique in many other respects; it dared to raise its voice through its editorial columns against the evils in the business and political affairs of the State; in things that people might say were none of its business; it continued to do it, however, in a way that was constructive because of the fact that Archibald Johnson wrote its editorials and directed its editorial policy.

How did he help the Orphan children of the State? Well, here is just one way of many that he helped. It was the privilege of the writer of this article to speak to a little community Sunday School, a number of years ago. It was in the interest of an orphanage. A collection was taken. It was so large, for the size of the gathering, as to create comment. A poll was taken of the church affiliation of the people in this little group. There was a sprinkling of Presbyterians; a sprinkling of Methodists, and a large percentage of Baptists; and that explained it. Every Baptist in North Carolina that reads Charity and Children (and that means 90% of the Baptists), are so filled with a knowledge of Orphanage work, and a desire to help, that whenever you get a group of them together and take a collection for any Orphanage, it is a liberal contribution. Mr. Johnson was largely responsible for the fact that the Baptists of North Carolina (while not the strongest denomination financially) stand way out in front in the amount of work done for destitute children.

Archibald Johnson, together with that noble man of God, Rev. M. L. Kesler, did a work for orphans that will continue to bear fruit for years and centuries to come; and their successors in the persons of Dr. I. G. Greer, the head of the Mills Orphanage, and Rev. J. A. McMillan, as Mr. Johnson's successor as Editor of Charity and Children, have inherited a legacy that is a challenge and an inspiration.

MRS. A. T. JAMISON

(By Jos. B. Johnston)

The Tri-State Orphanage Conference meets once a year. It was started at Thornwell Orphanage many years ago, with Dr. Jacobs as one of the charter members. Only one charter member is now living—Dr. A. T. Jamison, Superintendent of Connie Maxwell Orphanage.

Dr. Jamison has never missed a meeting of the Tri-State Conference, and those of us who are accustomed to attend regularly, look forward to seeing, not only Dr. Jamison, but also Mrs. Jamison. She always accompanied him, not just as a spectator, but as an active participant in the deliberations of the Conference. Her words of wisdom and her charm added to the pleasure and profit of these meetings.

During the last few years, Mrs. Jamison's health has not been good. Sometimes her stay at the Tri-State meetings has had to be cut short on account of her health, and now word has just come to us that Mrs. Jamison is dead. She will be missed by all of us who are accustomed to know her, not only at meetings of the Orphanage Conference, but when visiting Connie Maxwell Orphanage.

Dr. Jamison is dean of the Orphanage Superintendents in the Carolinas. Over thirty years' service as the head of that great Baptist institution. His labors have been shared by Mrs. Jamison. Many things have been inaugurated at Connie Maxwell through her love and zeal. We have all lost a friend and leader.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

Did you look at the Table of Receipts for December? It is interesting. This is the first time in a number of years that Winston-Salem has not held the lead. Concord holds it this year by a comfortable margin. Fayetteville does not hold the cellar position. She has stepped ahead of two other Presbyteries. We wish we could analyze these changes and see if we could arrive at the reason back of them. As a whole, contributions from all the Presbyteries are better than they were this time last year. The gifts are twelve cents per member better, which is just half way up to where it was five years ago.

Contributions to the Orphanage naturally are affected by the prosperity of a country, or the particular section of the country making the contribution, and by that section's interest in the Orphanage. We have been told repeatedly that if we would take in children from a certain church, that that would increase the interest of that church, and naturally increase the contributions. Well, during the last year, we have accepted more children from Wilmington Presbytery than from any other; and yet, Wilmington holds the bottom in the amount of gifts. Mecklenburg rates next in the number of children received into the Orphanage, and Mecklenburg has fallen behind her giving of just a year ago. She is one of the four Presbyteries that has not yet registered a gain.

Let's look at the economic conditions of the various sections of the country. We all know that cotton and tobacco raising has been more profitable this year than for many, many years. Wilmington certainly must have felt that benefit of this changed condition. It certainly has been noted in Fayetteville Presbytery by a distinct gain. The tobacco factory sections are still prosperous (so we are told), and yet we find Granville and Winston-Salem Presbyteries both falling behind last year in their contributions, with Granville next to the bottom of all the Presbyteries contributing.

Concord Presbytery has not put the most children into the Orphanage, and does not comprise the richest territory, by any means. In fact, it embraces possibly more of the cotton mill industry than any other Presbytery, and we are told that the cotton mill industry has not yet reached its full degree of health; and yet, Concord evidently forgot their troubles and responded wholeheartedly to the Orphanage appeal.

There must be some other element that has to do with Orphanage giving. What do you think could be the reason?

MEALS SERVED BY S. S.

Schools, 20 others have given as much as $100.00, three new ones joining this group in December. In order are Salisbury First $288.50, Gastonia First $275.46, Olivia $237.56, Belmont $211.58, Shelby $201.39, Tenth Avenue $198.59, North Wilkesboro $186.34. Durham First $181.00, Albemarle $180.56, Laurinburg $171.39, Monroe $155.25, Greensboro First $150.48, St. Pauls (F) $133.52, Statesville First $130.97, Rocky Mount First $127.65, Lexington $115.44, Westminster (M) 144.42, Westminster (O) $113.21, Buffalo (G) $111.84, and New Bern $104.37.

The Sunday School meals (using ten cents per meal as an average) which could have been served by the Sunday Schools for the past 21 months are as follows:

Months	1933-34	1934-35
April	2,898	6,218
May	6,633	10,659
June	8,252	9,501
July	9,425	12,753
August	13,238	8,762
September	13,419	14,366
October	12,678	13,104
November	10,717	9,641
December	11,519	17,229
January	10,583	?
February	9,553	?
March	18,383	?

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Along with the encouragement of the 1934 Thanksgiving Offering in December was the equally encouraging fact that a number of other Sunday Schools have recently adopted a regular plan of giving. New Salem in Concord Presbytery sent their first regular amount; Hebron in Granville sent a regular sum through Presbytery's Treasurer Burlington First Sunday School reported their first gift but it hasn't been learned whether the budget method or the Sunday-per-month Offering plan is being used. Pearsall Memorial in Wilmington had annually sent something to Barium, but monthly amounts have been coming since September and it was definitely learned last month that they had set aside one offering per month to Barium.

Another new Sunday School has already reported since the first of January, and you'll be told about this in the February issue. HOW MANY MORE WILL BE LISTED IN THE FEBRUARY MESSENGER?

No. of Organizations

At the conclusion of the months of October and November, the Auxiliaries of the Synod held full sway in the additional organizations reporting regular gifts to the Orphanage, but new reports from Auxiliaries subsided in December, while the churches stepped forward to merit acclaim.

In December, 15 additional churches reported contributions through their regular budgets, though the Auxiliaries were not far behind with 12 new ones reporting. There were seven Sunday Schools sending regular gifts for the first time in December, some of this number having definitely adopted a plan of regular giving for the future.

To date, a total of 631 organizations have helped Barium by sending regular sums, and many more than this helped in the Thanksgiving Offering, as would be seen had figures been tabulated on this. Sunday Schools lead in the number, with 240 having reported regular sums. The church budgets are second with 196, and the Auxiliaries trail with 181. It is predicted the latter will soon overcome their nearest rival. Fourteen Young People's groups have sent in regular gifts, which is a much better record than for 1933-1934.

In budget giving from the churches, Concord Presbytery is far ahead with 40 reporting such contributions; Mecklenburg is the runner-up with 30 churches. Fayetteville Presbytery continues to maintain its substantial lead in Sunday Schools giving regularly. That Presbytery has 48, followed by Mecklenburg with 35. These two Presbyteries switch positions in Auxiliaries reporting, for Mecklenburg leads this group with 30 having reported regular gifts, while 28 have responded from Fayetteville.

Organizations helping according to Presbyteries follow:

Presbytery	Ch.	S. S.	Aux.
Albemarle	18	17	17
Concord	42	32	23
Fayetteville	15	48	28
Granville	15	11	16
Kings Mountain	11	23	16
Mecklenburg	30	35	30
Orange	27	31	24
Wilmington	24	33	18
Winston-Salem	14	10	9

tery, which is $126.48 ahead of its previous year's Thanksgiving response.

The other four had not reached their 1933 totals on December 31st. Kings Mountain Presbytery lacked only $46.16 of reaching her sum; Mecklenburg was behind $81.94; Winston-Salem Presbytery lacked $106.17; Wilmington needed $135.70 to equal her '33 total, and Granville Presbytery was way behind with a total of $444.67 necessary to come up to last year's mark. It is thought that maybe all of these except Granville Presbytery, will reach last year's sum before all of the offering has been received. In fact, one of them had already gone across before The Messenger went to press.

Here's a comparison of the Thank giving Offering for the two years, that of 1934 being as of the date of December 31st:

Presbytery	1933 Total	1934 To Date
Albemarle	$1,675.90	$1,802.38
Concord	5,570.52	8,903.13

COTTAGE NEWS

ANNIE LOUISE

Dear Friends:

We hope Santa Claus was as good to you as he was to us. Although Santa brought us many nice presents we were sorry that our matron, Miss McGoogan, could not be with us during Christmas. Her sister was very ill and she was with her. Miss Mary Brown stayed with us while she was away and we enjoyed having her.

Mrs. Herbert McLean, of Raeford, sent us a big bag of walnuts and we want to thank her for them.

We appreciate the nice victrola and the many fine records which were sent to the Orphanage during Christmas by Dr. J. H. Henderlite, of Gastonia. We enjoy the music very much and it will make the hours more pleasant for us.

We want to thank Mrs. John Sprunt Hill for the money she sent us for Christmas.

A few of our girls have the flu. We hope that they soon will be well and that the rest of us will not take it.

Nancy Parcell.

WOMAN'S BUILDING

Jan. 3, 1935

Hello Folks:

We hope every one had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Our resolutions have been made and we're going to do our best to keep them throughout the entire year.

Santa Claus brought every one of us many gifts, which we have enjoyed and are enjoying more than we know how to express.

Basketball practice is in full swing and our first game is with China Grove next Tuesday night. If practice makes perfect, Coach Bell's team will take the victory easily.

The sewing room girls are making outing pajamas for the little boys at Lee's Cottage. At the rate they are going now the pajamas will be finished in time to be worn in the hot summer months. But, maybe they will show some speed and finish them in time to be worn while it is still cold.

A happy New Year to Everyone!

—Sewing Room Girls.

LEE'S COTTAGE

Our holidays are over and we enjoyed them very much. We hope every one had as merry a Christmas as we had. Every one who played Santa Claus to us sent us just the things we were wanting most and we appreciate them.

Some good friends sent us candy and fruit which we enjoyed all during the holidays.

Our sidewalks were crowded during the Christmas vacation, with boys and girls skating on the skates which had been given them on December 25th.

A number of us had pleasant visits from friends and relatives.

We are looking forward to seeing some good basketball games on our court soon.

We listened in and heard the big Rose Bowl football game New Year's Day.

Miss Turner is planning to spend the week-end with her sister in Richfield.

We want to wish all our good friends lots of happiness during the coming year.
